Clarification regarding the Shabbat times during the summer months

Ordinarily Shabbat begins 18 minutes before sunset.

However, as we enter the long days of summer in our community, we will be bringing Shabbat in at the earlier time of 7.40 pm.

This will allow our members to have their Friday night meal at a more convenient hour.

For the benefit of our members who are unable to light candles with the rest of the community at 7.40 pm, we have put the latest time for candle lighting in brackets.

Kabbalat Shabbat will take place at 7.15pm throughout the summer.

News and Views

The Haftorah that we read on first day Shavuot describes the seraphim and the chayot -lofty angels as they prepare to sing for G-d. Ezekiel the prophet is privy to this amazing sight, and he even for one moment sees the throne of G-d himself.

The angels turn to each other and wonder - where is the place of G-d's greatest glory? And they don't know the answer, until the last verse of this week's Haftorah. G-d's wind takes Yechezkel back to this earth, and it is at this moment that they recognise that the place where Yechezkel stands - this earth is MIMKOMO - the true place of G-d.. is this physical earth.

Rabbi Shimon Shwab explains that as awe inspiring as the sight of Yechezkel was - seeing the way these powerful beings serve G-d, how incredible they are, they do not compare to a human being who does the correct thing. The last line of the Haftorah is telling us that the glory of G-d is best expressed in this world. However wonderful it is in heaven; it is better on the earth.

The angels have no choice but to serve G-d. They are so incredibly close to him that not to serve G-d, not to proclaim his praise is madness. We on the other hand have so many different inclinations. We don't see G-d in the same clear way. We have the choice to ignore G-d in this world, to follow whatever feels best to us.

This festival celebrates our free will in accepting the Torah on Shavuot. The Jewish people said: Na'aseh Vnishma - we will do whatever G-d wants - we will reveal G-d's glory in this world, and we will do it through the Torah. The true revelation of G-d takes place in this world. This is the greatest responsibility and the greatest privilege a Jew can have in this world.

We must never think that our actions are meaningless, that no-one cares if I do something right, so what is the point. Our actions on this world, as small as this world is, and as small as we seem to be, create ramifications which resound right throughout the heavens.

I wish you all a good Shabbos and Yom Tov.

Rabbi Steven, Siobhan, Maya, and Talia.
